

Accident & Incident Investigation: Determining Root Causes Workshop

OVERVIEW

This course is aimed at all individuals, employees and employers working in all economic sectors and involved in the Accident prevention and reporting aspect of the Safety Management System. Successful participants will be able to conceptualize the root causes of accidents, the possible preventative, and corrective aspects as well as reporting. This course also addresses OSHA 29 CFR 1910.119.

Recommended participants:

- ✓ Persons in organizations who are exposed to hazards and risks including General Workers
- ✓ Safety Committee Members
- ✓ Managers
- ✓ Safety Personnel
- ✓ Supervisors
- ✓ Engineers
- ✓ Accident Investigation Team Members
- ✓ Anyone interested in learning how to determine root causes of accidents and incidents.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

This two-day interactive in-person workshop, will cover the following topics:

1. Concept of Accident, Incident, Unsafe Act, Unsafe Conditions
2. Root Cause Analysis
3. Importance of reporting and recording of accidents
4. Communication
5. Legal Requirements (OSH Act 2004)
6. Team Role Play and Scenarios
7. Purpose of an accident investigation
8. Types of accidents
9. Conducting an investigation
10. Interviewing witnesses
11. Documenting findings and corrective actions
12. Implementing improvements

FACILITATOR'S BACKGROUND

Mr. Kenny Mohammed

Kenny Mohammed has over twenty-five (25) years' experience in the upstream & downstream industries. His primary focus is on the development of safety behaviours within the frontline & working class for those who are exposed to safety critical tasks.

Mr. Mohammed has accomplished his Master's Membership in Executive Leadership, SVQ Assessor / Verifier qualifications in competency management and he also brings a high degree of operational experience to the learning process.

With regards to his safety training qualifications, Mr. Mohammed is a certified Train-the -Trainer in numerous disciplines. Mr. Mohammed's qualifications prove integral in supplying and developing a range of training and competency options tailored to meet client and national standards.

WORKSHOP DETAILS

Dates: 18th & 19th April 2024

Time: 9:00 am – 3:00 pm

Cost: Members: $1200.00 per participant
Non-members: $1500.00 per participant

Note: Cost inclusive of all training materials and certificates. All costs quoted are VAT exclusive

Venue: The Energy Chamber Learning Centre
Atlantic Plaza, Point Lisas

Contact: Chrystal Joshua-George @ 679-7113 ext. 38 or admin@learningcentre.energy.tt

Assessment:

The training is centered on a competency-based system, where each delegate will be given a knowledge assessment questionnaire. A pass mark of 80% and above is required.

Certification:

In order for a certificate to be issued, the participant must successfully complete all exercises and assessments indicated above.